Athletics & Recreation

VISION

A healthy, active, and connected community where each person is at their personal best and proud of their UBC experience.

MISSION

To engage our community in outstanding sport and recreation experiences, to enable UBC athletes to excel at the highest levels, and to inspire school spirit and personal well-being through physical activity, involvement, and fun.

GOALS

To deliver on the vision, we make decisions and prioritize work that will

1. Increase participation
2. Deliver excellence on the national and world stage
3. Build school spirit
4. Nurture a strong sense of community
5. Cultivate an inspired workplace where staff are at their best

STRATEGY

Our strategy is to invest in partnerships, to leverage resources, and to align with other UBC units and organisations.

WHAT WE DO

We focus our efforts and resources on:

PROGRAMS

We deliver engaging, dynamic programs for the whole of our community that increase involvement, in sport and recreation and deliver performance success.

LEARNING

We provide unique and exciting student learning opportunities that foster personal growth, skill building and leadership development.

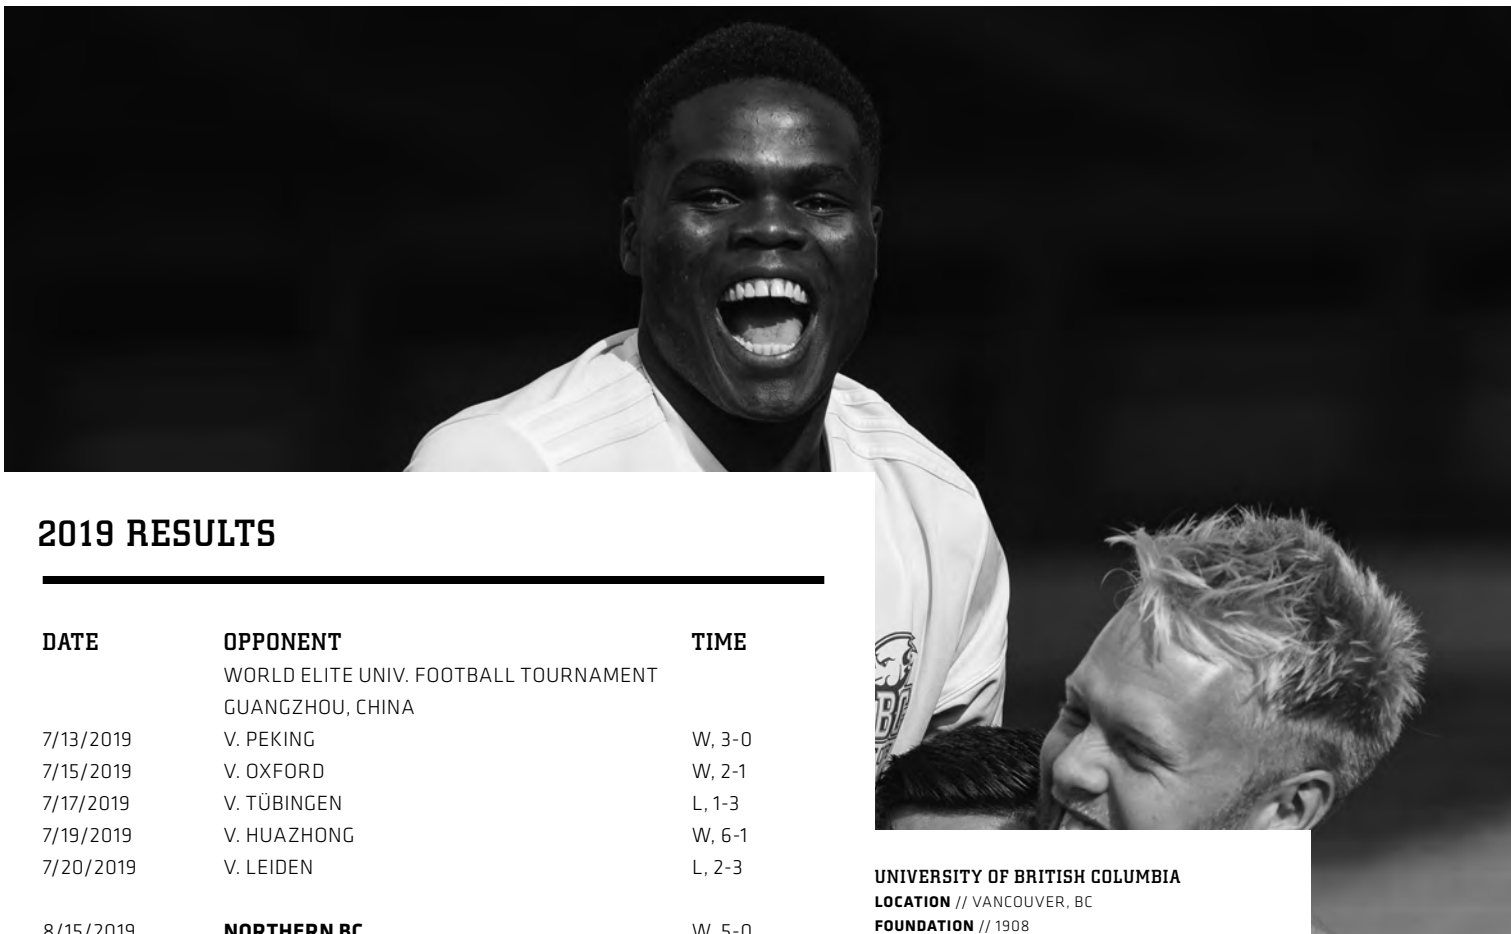

EVENTS

We create high-quality, community-building events where people can connect, have fun and get involved with UBC, recreation and varsity sport.

PARTNERSHIPS

We invest in cross-campus and community partnerships that drive research and improvement in the areas of high performance sport, fitness and well-being.

EXCEL. ENGAGE. INSPIRE.

COACHING STAFF

MIKE MOSHER

HEAD COACH

24TH SEASON

Canada West Championships: 1997, '01, '10, '12, '13, '15, '17, '18, '19

U SPORTS Championships: '05, '07, '12, '13

Canada West Coach of the Year: 2009, '13, '15

U SPORTS Coach of the Year: 2013

Conference record: 197-53-57 (including this year)

Canada West playoff record: 33-17 (including this year)

U SPORTS championship record: 23-9

Mike Mosher continues to build on his legacy of success as he is in the midst of his 24th season as the head coach of the most decorated men's soccer program in the history of U SPORTS. Mosher is approaching another significant milestone in a career that has been full of honours, needing just three conference wins next season to reach 200.

He has guided the UBC Thunderbirds to four national titles (2005, 2007, 2012, and 2013) and owns an incredible 23-9 record in games played at the U SPORTS Men's Soccer Championship tournament. He was the team's assistant in 1994 but served as the head coach at that year's nationals, and led the T-Birds to the Canadian title.

After a 10-2-3 regular season, UBC won its ninth conference championship with Mosher at the helm of the program, and 20th overall, besting Calgary 2-0 in the championship game on home turf.

Earlier this summer, the team returned to China for the World Elite University Football Tournament after making its first appearance at the event two years ago.

Last season, the T-Birds shut out Trinity Western 2-0 in the Canada West game on home turf. Thomas Gardner made league history by becoming the first person to win the Canada West's Rookie and Player of the Year awards in the same season. The T-Birds also welcomed the best in the nation as they hosted the U SPORTS Men's Soccer Championship for the sixth time in school history.

In 2017, UBC won the conference banner and placed fourth in the national tournament, the team's fifth appearance at the U SPORTS championship in six years.

Mosher crossed the milestone of 200 regular season and playoff wins as UBC's coach early in the 2016 season, which saw the Thunderbirds place second in the Canada West before finishing fifth in the U SPORTS Men's Soccer Championship.

Mosher was the U SPORTS Coach of the Year in 2013 and the Canada West Coach of the Year on three different occasions (2009, '13 and '15).

Mosher's 2013 conference and national championship-winning squad won the school's 13th U SPORTS title and was named Sport BC's Team of the Year, while the 2012 team went undefeated in non-conference, Canada West and playoff action to become the best in the nation.

In 2010, the T-Birds won their third Canada West championship under Mosher's direction. The squad then went on to collect a silver medal at the U SPORTS Championship. For his efforts, Mosher was named the Adult Coach of the Year by BC Soccer.

Internationally, Mosher served as Canada's head coach at the 2009 Summer Universiade in Belgrade, Serbia, as well as an assistant with the 2007 squad that competed in Thailand.

As a player with UBC, Mosher was a T-Bird for five years, during which time he contributed to three national championship runs in 1989, '90 and '91. He was named Most Valuable Player of the 1989 national tournament at Thunderbird Stadium, and was also a U SPORTS All-Canadian in 1990. He's already in the UBC Sports Hall of Fame as the 1989-91 teams were enshrined in 2013.

Mosher also played four years with the Canadian Olympic team and spent four seasons in the Canadian Soccer League with the Edmonton Brickmen and the Winnipeg Fury.

Mosher has won a total of 13 national titles in his playing and coaching career. He has claimed eight at UBC, three as a player and five as a coach, and five more as a player comprised of two senior men's club crowns, one Under-18 national title, and two U-18 all-star triumphs.

A UBC physical education graduate, he also completed his Master's degree in arts at UBC, specializing in sport management.

SEASON RECAP

The UBC Thunderbirds completed an undefeated run through the league playoffs by beating Calgary 2-0 in the final on home turf. It is the program's 20th Canada West title overall, its third straight (all won at home), and seventh this decade.

UBC did not give up a goal in three playoff contests, with 1-0 and 2-0 shutouts of Alberta and Saskatchewan, respectively in the Canada West quarter-final, and semifinal.

UBC posted a conference-best 10-2-3 record during the 2019 regular season, winning the league's Pacific Division for the eighth time in a row.

Head coach Mike Mosher's Thunderbirds were the Canada West's highest-scoring team, registering 35 goals, and with 10 coming from forward Victory Shumbusho, who led the conference in scoring.

Shumbusho was one of three UBC players named to the Canada West First All-Star team. He was joined by second-year midfielder Thomas Gardner, last year's Canada West Player of the Year, and U SPORTS and Canada West Rookie of the Year, and newcomer Jackson Farmer, a defender with senior national team and professional experience with teams such as Vancouver Whitecaps FC 2.

Jordan Haynes, another new defender with pro experience, made the league's Second All-Star team. Logan Chung made the Canada West All-Rookie team.

The newcomers have meshed well the large group of UBC stalwarts that have been part of the current run of conference titles.

The squad is captained by Sean Einarsson, who was a rookie on the last UBC team to earn the U SPORTS national championship, in 2013.

Along with Einarsson, goalkeeper Jason Roberts, midfielder Kerman Pannu, defender Manraj Bains, and injured forward Luke Griffin are all in their fifth of year eligibility having played their entire university careers as Thunderbirds.

The 2019 season began early for UBC. The team went to China in July for the World Elite University Football Tournament, hosted by the South China University of Technology.

The T-Birds won three of five contests, with triumphs coming against Peking (China), Oxford (England), and Leiden (Netherlands). It was the second time in three years the program has travelled to China to play in this tournament.

Regular season highlights included a two-game Legends Cup sweep of historic rivals Victoria, a pair of victories over Fraser Valley, and five-goal performances in wins against Alberta and Thompson Rivers.

Einarsson moved into a tie for 20th place in the Canada West in total points since 1978 by reaching 33 for his career. With 24 career goals, he's tied for 14th in Canada West since 1978.

Roberts concluded his regular-season career with 20.5 career shutouts, fourth-most in Canada West since 1992.

The Thunderbirds are the most successful men's soccer program in U SPORTS history. In total, UBC has earned 13 national championships, eight more than the next closest schools.
